

University	Saarland University Erasmus code: D SAARBRU01
Places per year	Places in compulsory courses are usually available. Places in block practicals and optional courses are limited. Placements (clinical electives) are arranged individually.
Academic calendar	Semester dates Some courses are taking place during vacations (Pharmacology, Toxicology; Ophthalmology). Clinical electives are arranged individually and in many departments available all year round.
Restrictions	Students in their 5 th semester and above accepted. Prerequisites for individual courses are listed in our course catalogue.
Language requirements	German for compulsory courses: B1 recommended -- B1/B2 required for Pharmacology, Toxicology and Neurology Physical Examination courses; places in Pharmacology, Toxicology course confirmed only after a personal conversation with the instructor -- C1 required for Psychiatry and Psychotherapy, and Psychosomatic Medicine -- B2 required for additional clinical rotations (at start of placement) German for clinical placements: B2 required -- mandatory B2 level at start of placement, i.e. it is possible to apply with, for example, a B1 certificate and a proof of attendance of a B2 level course -- C1 required for Emergency Medicine (practical year only), Psychiatry and Psychotherapy, and Psychosomatic Medicine Read a detailed description of Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR) at the Council of Europe's webpage
Study plan	Courses from various clinical semesters can be attended and certain clashes are allowed. Please contact the incomings coordinator (ects@uks.eu) to check if your preferred combination of courses is possible.
Course catalogue	Course catalogue and timetable
Additional information	Immunisation Documentation required for block practicals and placement students; further information available upon placement confirmation. Practical information Information on: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• How and when to apply• Living in Homburg or Saarbrücken• Pre-sessional and in-sessional language courses• Finding housing is available on the Saarland University and Faculty of Medicine webpages.